CorpTrav Management Group and ATP International Sign Partnership Deal

CorpTrav Management Group of Chicago has signed a partnership agreement with International travel management group ATP International (ATPI).

CorpTrav Management Group, one of the largest independently owned travel management companies in the United States, has become a partner of the ATPI Group. CorpTrav is recognized for award winning service, advanced technology, and unending adaptability in providing its clients with comprehensive travel management solutions. With locations in Dallas, Chicago, and San Francisco, the 34-year-old company is a leading, wholly owned, certified Woman-owned Business Enterprise (WBE) and boasts a highly-tenured staff.

Graham Ramsey ATP International Group CEO commented: "Corporate customers are increasingly demanding a travel management provider that operates without boundaries and beyond borders; this latest deal allows us to meet their objectives. We are delighted to be partnering with CorpTrav, an organization that is well established with a reputation for excellence. We fully expect to not only increase service provision for our mutual clients but also to provide a compelling proposition for new clients looking for an alternative to their international travel management providers"

The ATPI Group now operates out of 45 offices in 20 countries around the world. In December 2009 the company signed an agreement to open ATP branded offices across the Middle East.
